

Bridging Medical Gaps Collaboration

September Newsletter

Join Us!

Rinki Goswami MD MS, President

Hello! Its the time of year when professionals working in healthcare and public health transition into their new roles! The process can be stressful as it is - but this year with the pandemic things are even more fraught. Our September newsletter is all about keeping things short and getting YOU involved!

Our newest initiative is a half day VIRTUAL CONFERENCE in summer of 2021! We would love your help in planning, marketing, and joining us as we try an exciting new project! Click here if interested in joining the planning committee

With that in mind - we are taking this month to offer out new ways for our subscribers to get involved! Help out on our committees, recruit university chapters, help write grants, propose new projects, or donate! We are also offering a student elective, a mentor/mentee program, or an opportunity to join our policy efforts! To learn more, keep reading or email us at bridgingmedicalgaps@gmail.com

Visit our Website

Want to get involved?

Conference Planning Committee

Join a Committee

Submit an Article

Start a Chapter

Student Elective

Featured Articles

Racism in the Air, Water, and Where we Live: Environmental Racism

The fight for racial justice continues - racism is a public health crisis that extends outside our doctor's offices and hospitals - and is present in many aspects of our lives.

Full Text

Incarceration Medicine: Problems and Potential

Health inequity in the US is significant - and nowhere is it more obvious than within our incarcerated population. This article explores concerns and potential .

Full Article

Top 10 Favorite Public Health Books

In a time where things are stressful - here's a list of fun public health books to explore. Let us know your favorites too!

Full Article

Policy Corner

Student Debt Relief in the Face of a Pandemic

As the pandemic rages on the issue of student debt relief becomes ever more important. A recap of our past letter template below:

Full Text